

Visitors

D 7, 27 · Room 301/302
68131 Mannheim · Germany
Telephone +49-621-181-2087
Fax +49-621-181-3699
E-Mail: gschwend@uni-mannheim.de www.sowi.uni-mannheim.de/gschwend

Assistant (Christel Selzer)

Telephone +49-621-181-2413
E-Mail: methods@uni-mannheim.de

CDSS Dissertation Proposal Workshop
Spring 2010

Time Several one-day workshops
Place D7, room 307

Description: The goal of this course is to provide support and crucial feedback on writing students' dissertation proposal. Such a proposal is a research outline that delineates the doctoral thesis project, including the motivation for research question(s), the survey of the relevant theoretical and empirical contributions, the development of a theoretical framework, the specification of the methodology and planned empirical analysis. You should be prepared to address the following questions: What makes that an interesting question? Is it an important question? What contributions would this question and the answers make to the scholarly literature? What strategies are there to answer your research questions(s)?

16. February	10.15-11.45	What is a Dissertation proposal? Kick-off meeting
18. March	10-12	Review & Feedback on draft proposal (psychology students)
19. March	10:30-17:30	Review & Feedback on draft proposal (polisci students)
25. March	10-12	Review & Feedback on draft proposal (sociology students)
29. April	10-12	Review & Feedback on draft proposal (psychology students)
3. May	10-12	Review & Feedback on draft proposal (sociology students)
17. May	10:30-17:30	Review & Feedback on draft proposal (polisci students)

Note. Your Dissertation Proposal is due 1st of June. Send copies to CDSS (cdss@uni-mannheim.de) and a paper copy to your mentor / potential supervisor as well as your co-supervisor (please name potential co-supervisor in consultation with mentor).

Assignments: There will be several assignments besides working on your own dissertation proposal and actively participating in all class discussions that are related to the one-day workshops you participate.

- Prepare a draft of your dissertation proposal and submit it (hardcopy) to the two assigned discussants of your draft proposal as well as to me. The draft proposal is due 1 week before your field-specific Review and Feedback session.
- Prepare written reviews of the draft proposals you are assigned to, send them to the authors and to me and, finally, present them in the Review and Feedback session.
- Prepare a short presentation of your draft proposal and present it in our Review and Feedback session.