The Collaborative Research Center “Political Economy of Reforms” (SFB 884) is looking for a

Student Assistant
(20h/month, Bachelor or Master student) to support the interdisciplinary research project A6 “Welfare state reform support from below: linking individual attitudes and organized interests in Europe” headed by Prof. Dr. Katja Möhring in collaboration with the project team.

Who we are:
The Collaborative Research Center 884 is an interdisciplinary institute which is funded by the German Research Foundation (DFG). More than 60 international researchers from political science, economics, sociology, and computer science conduct research in 18 projects. Project A6 specifically focuses on comparative research on family and gender equality policies in Western European welfare states following a mixed methods approach.

Tasks:
- Literature research
- Data management
- Data visualization

Qualifications:
- Solid skills in R
- Skills in Stata of advantage (not mandatory)
- Solid skills in English
- Additional language skills of advantage (not mandatory): German, French, Italian
- Interest in social science research based on social media and panel data
- Interest in industrial relations in advanced European welfare states of advantage

Working hours are flexible. The wage per hour is 10,01 € for Bachelor students and 11,64 € for Master students. The starting date will be in May the latest.

If interested, please submit short motivation letter, a CV and transcript of records by 17 May 2019 (applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis) to

Maximiliane Reifenscheid reifenscheid@uni-mannheim.de or Sonderforschungsbereich 884 – Universität Mannheim
B6, 30-32
68131 Mannheim

The information on collection of personal data according to Art. 13 GDPR is provided on our website “Jobs”. Please note that threats to confidentiality and the unauthorized access of third parties cannot be ruled out in case of unencrypted email communication.