

Marketing Internship from February 2020

About us:

Organico Realfoods sells 100% natural or organic food to retailers and health shops both in the UK and international markets. We have three brands in our own ranges: Fish4Ever, Organico and Wild Thing. We also represent brands made by top quality European and US producers on a sole agency basis. We value the environment, animals, health and the people that are associated with our products. It is why we have decided to create only quality, organic products, work with suppliers that share our ethical values and keep informed about the industry, the environment and the food story.

Requirements:

- 6 month internship starting February 2020 (exact dates are flexible)
- Studies in Marketing, Business, Economics or related field
- interest in Social Media and marketing
- Strong communication skills in English (written and spoken)
- Attention to detail and strong work ethics

Responsibilities:

- Responsible for all Social media channels, grow our audience and increase engagement and effectiveness
- Be confident and not scared to share your ideas and actively contribute to the Marketing team
- Keeping up to date with industry developments and competitor activities
- Assist Export to Germany

What we offer:

- payment
- discount on products
- great, small team
- Experience (of course!)

To apply please send your CV with an up to date phone number and E-Mail to marketing@organico.co.uk until 31.December 2019.

We look forward to hearing from you!

Organico Realfoods Ltd.

Address: Unit 3 City Limits, Danehill, Lower Early, Reading RG6 4UP

Tel.: +44 1189 2387601 Web: <https://organicorealfoods.blog/>